Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Before using this preparation for a cough or cold you may wish to know what it has done for others. Mrs. O. Cook, Macdon, Ill., writes, "I have found it gives the quickest relief of any cough remedy I have ever used." Mrs. James A. Knott, Chillicothe, Mo., says "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy cannot be beat for coughs and colds." H. J. Moore, Oval, Pa., says "I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy on several occasions when I was suffering with a settled cold upon the chest and it has always brought about a cure."

The Schwenkfelders. The Schwenkfelders are a religious sect who, like the Friends, the Dunkards and the Mennonites, profess the doctrine of nonresistance. They are the followers of Kaspar von Schwenkfeld, a German religious reformer of the sixteenth century. He was an advocate of the Reformation, but his views differed greatly from those of Luther. He did not found a church as it was inconsistent with his principles, but after his death his followers held meetings and different congregations came into existence in various parts of Germany, particularly in Silesia. They suffered much persecution and many left their homes. In 1734 34 families emigrated from Silesia to Pennsylvania and settled in Montgomery and Berks counties. They have in this country six churches and 1,043 members.

Pie Looked Good. While visitors were having dinner at a friend's house a neighbor's little boy came along. Seeing that the guest were at the table, he seated himself on a couch on the side of the dining room. He remained quite until the hostess passed him with a tray on which she had the dessert. Then he smiled brightly and said, "My, but that pie looks good going by."

THE THEATRE

Wright Opera House
"As a play 'The Natural Law' is a success. It is fascinating mainly because the unexpected always happens. The big thing about the play is the character of Doctor Webster, admirably played and wonderful in its Christliness. His love for Ruth, so true and pure that it is ready to sacrifice all for her happiness, and so forgiving and reasonable that we are reminded of the great Teacher who said that we were to forgive seventy times seven, is in itself enough to commend the teaching that it is mean and wrong to condemn, as our society does, anyone who has made a mistake, again brings us into the unadulterated morning air of the Galilean who said, 'I have not come to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance.' The clear-headed, yet self-sacrificing acid test at the end that the doctor applies to Jack Bowling, is but the full and complete climax to a love as spotless as the noonday sun. You have a big thing."

"Of course, you understand that the little I have said about the play does not in any manner exhaust its wonders. It goes down to the most fundamental and basic principles of social order. Like all big things, it will reach much farther than we are able to grasp. It is even appreciated fully, let alone understood."—George Maychin Stockdale, D. D., New York City—adv.

Estate of Ethel Mabel Verian
STATE OF MICHIGAN—The Probate Court for the County of Gratiot.

At a session of said Court, held at the Probate Office in the village of Ithaca in said county, on the 25th day of December, 1917.

Present: Hon. J. Lee Potts, Judge of Probate.

In the Matter of the Estate of Ethel Mabel Verian, Deceased.

Isabel M. Verian having filed in said Court her petition praying that a certain instrument in writing, purporting to be the last will and testament of said deceased, now on file in said Court be admitted to probate, and that the administration of said estate be granted to D. Lloyd Johnson or to some other suitable person.

It is Ordered, That the 25th day of January next at ten o'clock in the forenoon, at said probate office, he and is hereby appointed for hearing said petition; and that notice thereof be given by the publication of this order, for three successive weeks previous to said day of hearing, in the Alma Record a newspaper printed and circulated in said county.

A true copy. J. LEE POTTS, Judge of Probate.

STOP COUGHING

The simplest and best way to stop coughs, is to take Foley's Honey and Tar. You get the curative influence of the pine balsam together with the mollifying effect of the honey, and other healing ingredients. It leaves a soothing coating on the inflamed tickling throat, raises phlegm easily and puts a quick end to hard wearing coughs. R. F. Hall, M.D., Va., writes: "One bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar stopped a troublesome bronchial cough and irritation that had bothered me for fifteen years." Your dealer sells it. Try it.
